Street Jesus News:

Welcome to the February edition of our e-news.

It was a great experience to attend the morning service at Malvern priory last weekend. Nice to randomly meet people who had lived in Suffolk but wonderful to hear a talk by John Butterworth who spoke to us about Open doors an organisation who monitor countries for their record on allowing Christian freedoms. They produce an annual watch list which grades countries on the degree to which they persecute Christians. North Korea has topped the list in recent years and remain the worst country for persecuting Christians closely followed by Somalia and Yemen. John held up flags of various countries and the congregation were invited to say if that country was on the watch list. The most interesting country was Albania which everyone thought was on the watch list. Albania under Enver Hoxha ruled the country as a dictator from 1944 to 1985, it was considered to be the most closed country and the worlds first Atheist state. Expressing Christian faith was punishable by death. Today Albania has a thriving Christian community and John tells the story of an army captain Berti Dosti whose job was listening to the worlds airwaves to identify perceived threats as Albania feared invasion by the USA, Russia and Britain. Paranoia is nearly always a feature of dictators. However Captain Dosti accidentally came across a Christian radio station Trans world Radio based in Monte Carlo. The story of Berti Dostis journey from army captain to Christian pastor is outlined in Johns book Gods secret listener. It is a truly fascinating and inspirational read. Wherever there is great persecution, the courage of witness is greater still.

5,621 Christians were killed for their faith across the world in the past year, a sobering figure and yet Christianity is increasing in many of the 50 countries on the Open doors watch list. If you would like to learn more about the work of open doors you can visit their website opendoorsuk.org

Lent begins on February 22nd this year. There are many inspirational books of lent readings and of course the recent trend has been to follow 40 Acts a devotional that encourages us to do something sacrificial for somebody on each day of lent rather than give something up. Last year I pledged to give up moaning for lent and this proved far more difficult than I first imagined and made me realise how much I actually commented and opined on things. This year I am pledging to put time aside to be thankful to God for something each day.

Street Jesus News:

After our Christmas and new years break we tend not to do outreach in January. We use it as a rest and reflection month. February is set to be a month of family commitments so our next outreach will be at Leiston Co-op on March 11th On Easter Saturday we plan to be in Felixstowe. In May Framlingham, June in Rendlesham and Woodbridge and July in Ipswich. Exact details will be given in our monthly news. This is an exciting time as we plan our outreaches for the year as we seek to cover all the main centres of population in the Suffolk coastal area.

We have always seen ourselves as a seed planting operation but increasingly we feel we are being led to reap. Our seekers group which we are hoping to start in March is one part of this. It will be a small closed group of invited seekers of Faith numbering maybe 3-4 people. We aim to share our faith and life experiences with the idea of pointing people toward Jesus.

We have also recently been studying a book Called Jesus at the door by Scott McNamara as a teaching tool to evangelise in a more direct way. It uses an image of Jesus at the door ( of your heart )to then ask some supplementary questions.

This has been very effective for those who have used this method. It would seem that an image opens up a conversation more readily than just words alone.

Romans 10:14 urges us to tell people about our faith because everyone needs to know.

The 'Tip run' evangelism continues to be interesting. It has been a season of evictions. Three in the past two months. All single women, two with young children. The level of anxiety and stress caused by the uncertainty of not having a home is significant. Two of the instances are due to relationship breakdown, mental health issues including bereavement. We know about these things because we hear of them in the media but it is quite something else to hear of them first hand and experience the distress person to person. In two instances landlords were selling their properties, the other was for non-payment of rent. The housing lists are long with a lack of social housing available. Private rents are high when compared with social housing and take up a larger portion of peoples incomes. Lifestyles, spending habits and addictions all exacerbate the problems. We go and give support in a non-judgemental way and because people are struggling they are often willing to listen about God and how lives can be transformed by him.

From time to time I hear people say that they are not comfortable to talk to people about Jesus, often afraid of rejection or marginalisation. I am not called to be an evangelist or I prefer just to get alongside people and love them they might say. It is true that evangelism has many expressions and although we may not all be called as evangelists we are all commanded to share our faith and in a secular society this can prove difficult. When I first went out on the Street I worked with Presence Faith on the street in Ipswich. They were brilliant at finding creative ways to engage with people.

Recently I have been supporting somebody who has been going through a very difficult time. Somebody who was reluctant to even entertain a conversation about faith. Conversations more recently have been more open about God. Seeing sense where previously it sounded foolish. I have taken to sending a bible verse by text each day and praying that it would settle in the heart. The word of God is so very powerful. Do you know somebody today who would benefit from a text of Holy scripture?

Gods blessings      Graham

BOOK OF THE MONTH

Albania the country, the world first atheist state. But Captain Berti Dosti, one of the elite communications team monitoring Albania's borders for American incursions, was leaving his country unguarded for 15 minutes a week as he tuned into Trans World Radio's broadcasts, ultimately becoming a believer. Had he been discovered he would probably have been shot. With churches destroyed and Christian leaders executed or jailed, post-Communist Albania with its Muslim heritage was tough ground for Christian mission. But Pastor Dosti helped to lead the new wave of church planting that has swept the country. Combining total integrity with social compassion, he and his colleagues have reached thousands, now there is a church in every community in Albania

Bible reading

My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, <sup>20</sup> because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.

<sup>22</sup> Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. <sup>23</sup> Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror <sup>24</sup> and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. <sup>25</sup> But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

James 1: 19-26

Prayer

Almighty God,
We bless you for our lives,
we give you praise
for your abundant mercy and grace we receive.

We thank you for your faithfulness even though we are not that faithful to you. Lord Jesus, we ask you to give us all peace in our mind, body, soul and spirit.

Amen

Quote to note

"The most common one-liner in the Bible is, "Do not be afraid." Someone counted, and it occurs 365 times."
...Richard Rhor
