Street Jesus News:

Welcome to the March edition of our e-news. Following on from our recent comments about our need for sustained prayer and repentance to bring about revival in the Church we are hearing incredible reports of God moving in very powerful ways at Astbury university in Kentucky. Reports describe an extended gathering of people coming and going with constant praise, testimony, scripture readings and prayer over a twenty day period. There have been reports of healings, emotional, physical and spiritual in some remarkable ways. Revival is a particular experience of God at work, a movement of the holy spirit which is most often the result of people pleading for forgiveness in repentance. Revivals of the past have raised great preachers not least John Wesley. Arguably the most dramatic UK revival was witnessed in Wales in 1904 which included mass baptisms. Closer to home there was an East Anglian revival among fishermen in Lowestoft in 1921 and more recently overseas in China And North America during the 1990's Some people like to distinguish between a revival and an awakening A revival usually effects just those of faith while an awakening moves the general population including those who have no faith at all. Its true the dramatic manifestations of a revival may seem very short lived but the purpose of a revival is to produce fruit in the lives of the people in those places and this should be judged in the long term.

Many people have travelled to Astbury like spiritual tourists looking for a dramatic experience of the holy spirit but in truth the holy spirit can be experienced in our own communities. Is it surely better to pray for revival just where we are.

We recently had a Ash Wednesday talk in our church. The three R's not reading riting or rithmatic but rather Return Repent and Restore. The original inspiration came from the book of Joel who tells of Gods desire to pour out his spirit on all people, that God may pity us yet leave behind a blessing and that we are to call on Gods name. Although lent is seen as a sacrificial time as we look forward to the crucifixion and resurrection we also look beyond that to Pentecost and Jesus coming back. Many Christians experience times where we feel remote from God, life is full of trials and distractions. When we are in this barren place Joel tells us to return to God with all your heart.

Street Jesus News:

So this requires awareness on our part because we can become distant without realising it but when we do return we know that God is gracious and compassionate slow to anger and abounding in love. much like in the story of the prodigal son. Having returned we need to repent, sometimes we see repentance as just saying sorry for our wrongdoing but the bible seems to suggest that it is more like a rending of the heart but it also requires something active, to resist temptation and to change and seek Gods power in the holy spirit to help us. He does not leave us all alone. In this way we are restored. Let us do this during our lent period and pray for revival just where we are.

During lent we all have certain things we like to give up. Chocolate is the common one. Some like to ponder reflections, read scriptures or fast and we hope that these are of spiritual benefit. In recent years people have engaged in the 40 acts programme which encourages us to practice an act of kindness each day, a different type of sacrifice. Last year for lent i pledged to give up complaining which made me realise just how much I complained about things. It was a real good exercise in self awareness. This lent I have given it a more positive twist, to dedicate time in my day to be thankful for something. This has also been a good exercise in that it has made me realise just how much there is to be thankful for. There are so many gifts from God which in his loving grace he has provided for us.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good.

Psalm 107:1

shutterstock.com · 343853267

Our reading this month is from the book of Habakkuk. Habakkuk is complaining to the Lord about the wicked behaviour of all those around him, that the law is paralysed and that there is no justice. Today the Police and lawcourts are overwhelmed with cases to the point where they are often unable to cope. The police and CPS tend to prosecute the most serious cases leaving what are seen as minor offences not investigated and criminals not charged. I saw some recent statistics showing the complaints to charging ratio being very low. People are left feeling that the law is not protecting them. In our ministry we have come across three individuals this past year where the law has not worked and justice has not been served. In each of those situations sin has been the root cause of the problem causing anguish all round. As Christians we know that justice is always served by a God who is all seeing and all knowing who works through Jesus and by the truth of his holy spirit. Justice is the flip side of the coin called love. There is no escape for any of us. What Habakkuk describes remains to this day. Jesus gives us the solution. Love hope and the freedom from sin, an abundant life into eternity. Praise the Lord.

On March 1th we will be out on our first outreach of the year at Leiston co-op We are very excited and so looking forward to it. We are hoping that we will have all the materials ready to practice our 'Jesus at the door' approach to evangelism. Please pray for us while we are out, it is so important to have the Lords protection as we convey the good news to all kinds of people Not everybody sees it as good news though and to those who challenge what we say or are just curious may God give us wisdom and the right words to speak. May people open the door of their hearts, to Allow Jesus to come in and dine with them.

Gods blessings Graham

Less income and your finances feeling out of control? ... then the free CAP Money Course is for you.

The Suffolk Coastal Debt Centre is running an online 3-session course on money management, beginning on Monday 16 January 2023 at 10.45am. This will be run in St John's Old Vicarage, St John's Hill Woodbridge, IP12 1HS.

You draw up your own budget and set up a money management system that takes away the stress of wondering how much you dare spend and helps you to feel in control.

The course is devised by the award-winning Christians Against Poverty and delivered by local trained money coaches who give you tools to make important decisions about your finances.

To apply for this free online course email [Bob Huddleston boblizh@gmail.com](mailto:Bob Huddleston) or text to 07754 048056 by 15th January 2023

Bible reading

This is the message that the prophet Habakkuk received in a vision. How long oh Lord must I call for help but you do not listen. Violence is everywhere I cry but you do not come to save. Must I forever see these evil deeds. Why must I watch this misery wherever I look. I see destruction and violence. I am surrounded by people who love to argue and fight. The law has become paralysed and there is no justice in the courts. The wicked far outnumber the righteous so that justice has become perverted.

The Lord replies Look around the nations, look and be amazed for I am doing something in your own day, something you wouldn't believe even if someone told you about it. I am raising up the Babylonians a cruel and violent people. They will march across the world and conquer other lands. They are notorious for their cruelty and do whatever they like. Their horses are swifter than Cheetahs and fiercer than wolves at dusk. Their charioteers charge from far away. Like eagles they swoop down to devour their prey. On they come all bent on violence. Their hordes advance like a desert wind and are gone. But they are deeply guilty for their own strength is their God

Habakkuk 1:1-11

Prayer

A Blessing

Three lit candles of varying heights, casting a warm, golden glow. The candles are positioned in the foreground, with the tallest one on the left and two shorter ones to its right. The background is dark, making the light from the candles stand out.

Be before me, behind me, and beside me protect me and move me toward that which will bring me closer to you.
Loving Father, bless my family with peace today.
Bless them not just with worldly favour in all they seek to accomplish
but with hearts and minds filled with your loving kindness.

Amen
